Section B School Board Governance and Operations

VOTING METHOD

200.23

All members of the Board of Education, including the Board President, shall vote on matters before the Board.

All voting of the Board shall be by voice, show of hands or roll call, with such exceptions as the Board may make for the election of officers.

On split votes, the names of those Board members voting with the minority shall be recorded in the minutes. In addition, the names of members abstaining shall be recorded.

All motions shall be carried by a majority of the members present and voting or as otherwise required by law.
