

Policies of the Board of Education

Section C General School Administration

TEMPORARY ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS

300.16

The responsibility for decision-making shall be clearly delineated in the event that the District Administrator is unavailable due to travel, vacation, illness or any other reason. If the District Administrator is unable to be reached, the responsibility and authority to act for the District shall fall to the Principal.

If the Principal or District Administrator is absent, a teacher may be designated to be in charge.

1st Board Reading – Dec. 19, 2006

2nd Board Reading – Jan. 23, 2007